

Culinary Spring Journey in the Mountains of Aso

5 nights 6 days

The Aso area is a beautifully blended mix of abundant nature and human settlements. In Japan, rural mountain areas where people live by the land are called “Satoyama”. Directly translated, the word means “mountain village”. On a deeper level, it indicates an ecosystem maintained by humans coexisting with mountains and woodlands through agricultural practices. In other words, satoyama refers to the traditional rural landscapes that once typified most of Japan.

In Aso, the satoyama culture runs deep. Everything from the soaring cedar trees to the vast pasturelands is woven together with the lives of people. The time of year when this satoyama culture truly flourishes is in the spring. As beautiful cherry blossoms decorate the landscapes, locals enter the mountains searching for seasonal wild plants while competing with wild boars to dig up the best bamboo shoots.

In this light culinary adventure, we will penetrate deep into the heart of satoyama culture and come in contact with the essence of Japanese culture. Interact with local people and learn about wild plants and other blessings of the mountain. Enjoy an exciting variety of locally sourced cuisine unique to the area, hot springs, cycling, and hiking in one of Japan’s most beautiful seasons.

Highlights:

- Explore authentic Japanese "satoyama" cuisine
- Hunt for wild plants together with a local herb adviser
- Cycle through the beautiful rural areas during Japan's best season
- Harvest bamboo shoots and prepare them in a giant volcanic steam cooker
- Hike through pasturelands on the ancient mountain Waita

Location:

The Aso area of Kumamoto prefecture is part of Aso-Kuju National Park and Unesco's Global Geoparks. The area is distinguished by dynamic and beautiful landscapes shaped by the still-active volcano. Symbolic aspects are the vast pasturelands and the inhabited volcanic caldera.

Day 1 – Arrival at Kumamoto airport, enter Aso!

We will make a quick stop at Mt. Tawara's lookout post to get an overview of the Aso area and grab some nice pictures of the scenery before continuing on towards our lodging for the night. Our hotel is a traditional Japanese onsen (hot spring) inn. Before arrival, you will also be briefed about how to properly use an onsen.

Arrival at our hotel, Senomoto Highland Hotel, is estimated around 16:00 o'clock. After checking in, there will be time to visit the onsen and freshen up before dinner. The guide will be available for instructions about bathing in the onsen.

Dinner will be had at the accommodation from 18:00.

Activity: Transportation, Onsen

Aso Caldera

Day 2 – Rural cycling tour in Minamioguni town

Today the adventure begins for real and we will start off the day by enjoying a refreshing morning yoga beneath an open sky while looking out over the stunning highlands. After stretching out our bodies, a healthy breakfast awaits us at the hotel

At 09:00 we will saddle up and head out on our cycling adventure to familiarize ourselves with the area. This pleasant cycling route will display the dynamic landscapes of Aso. Firstly, we will breeze through the vast grasslands of Aso, atop of the northern wall of the caldera. After a while, we will leave the grasslands behind us and head into the woodlands that eventually lead us into the lovely mountain villages surrounded by rice paddies. Our first stop will be at one of the oldest villages in Minamioguni town, Mangan-ji. Here we will jump off our bikes and explore the small rustic little village on foot before having a lunch break.

Lunch

We will have lunch at a small restaurant in Mangan-ji area, run by a lovely elderly lady who cooks amazing local cuisine. The lunch will consist of seasonal veggies, traditional countryside dishes, and if we're lucky, maybe even some game!

After lunch we will keep cycling for another 2,5 hours exploring rural villages and pastoral landscapes while stopping at points of interest such as small and intimate local shrines. Around 15:30 we will arrive at one of Minamioguni town's five onsen areas, Ota Onsen. Not nearly as famous as its counterpart Kurokawa Onsen, but the quality is at least as good and this guarantees us an authentic experience undisturbed by mass tourism.

Activity: Cycling. 24 km course, mostly downhill on paved roads. Maximal height difference 524 m.

Difficulty: 2

Day 3 – Nature walk & wild plant hunting

In spring, many people venture to Aso in order to gather wild plants such as mugwort, bracken, aralia sprouts, and butter bur flowers. Today we will take part in this annual tradition and go for a nature walk in the area close to our accommodation.

After breakfast, the morning hours until lunch will be spent with a local herb adviser, Mrs. Shigeko Wakizono. She isn't born in the area but chose to live here in part because of the abundant amount of edible weed and wild plants. Together we will go on a pleasant nature walk and learn from Mrs. Shigeko while we hunt for and gather these spring delicacies. The route will vary from time to time but imagine an easy walk on forest trails.

Lunch

As you might have guessed, lunch will be made from our haul of wild plants that we will cook and prepare together with Mrs. Shigeko in her home located close to Ota Onsen.

After having lunch we will say goodbye to Mrs. Shigeko and go for a quick ride with the car. It will bring us to another one of nature's delicious treasures. This time we will visit a mushroom farmer that specializes in growing "Shiitake" mushrooms on natural wood. Today, less than 10% of all shiitake produced in Japan are grown this way. Enjoy the flavorful taste of freshly picked mushrooms, grilled on a charcoal brazier!

Dinner

Tonight's dinner will not be had at the hotel. Instead we will go for a short drive and visit the town's local izakaya. This hidden gem is a place only known to locals and is visited and loved by people of all ages.

Activity:

- Nature walk. Distance: 5-10 km, mostly flat woodlands
- Town exploration. Distance 3-5 km, mostly flat woodland, stairs, and paved roads but some steep hills up and down
- Tour of the mushroom farm

Difficulty: 2

Day 4 – The golden delicacy of spring, Takenoko!

Many people love Japan for its beautiful bamboo forests, but few have experience digging up the actual bamboo shoots and eating them more or less fresh from the soil!

On this fourth day, we will go hunting for Japan’s number one spring delicacy, “takenoko”!

After breakfast, we will head out to experience something very unique! Together with two locals, who normally have no relation to the tourism industry, we will head into a small bamboo forest to dig up bamboo shoots. These fascinating plants grow at an incredible rate, and some species can even grow up to 91 cm in a single day. So timing is important! If you miss your chance, they will become hard and inedible. After our harvest, we will head to a giant volcanic steam cooker in the onsen area Waita, where we will prepare our bamboo shoots.

Lunch

Lunch will be a mix of steamed vegetables, locally sourced food, and of course, the freshly steamed bamboo shoots that the locals call “takenoko sashimi”, similar to the raw fish sashimi. This is a dish that even few Japanese have experienced!

The onsen village Waita is a fascinating place where volcanic steam rises up all around the village. The villagers have even built a thermal powerplant to produce clean energy by utilizing volcanic steam. And do I need to mention that there are many great onsens here as well? The afternoon will be spent here before heading to our next accommodation, an atmospheric hideaway in the mountains on the border of Kumamoto and Oita prefecture.

Dinner

Dinner will be BBQ at our accommodation, Jizobaru village, an atmospheric lodging in Japanese style, dedicated to sustainability, food, and relaxation.

Activity:

- Takenoko harvesting & volcano steam cooking
- Village exploration/onsen

Difficulty: 1

Day 5 – Mt. Waita hiking & onsen relaxation!

Our last full day of the trip has arrived and it's time for a proper workout! Today we will traverse the ancient mountain Waita that was created through a volcanic eruption 500,000 years ago.

After finishing breakfast at our accommodation, we will head out at 08:00 and start our climb from 08:30. The hike begins at 845 meters elevation and will take us through pasturelands and forests. If we are lucky, we might even happen upon some cows grazing peacefully in the mountains. Partially the road is quite steep, and you will work up a sweat, but it's fully possible to walk and no actual climbing is required.

We are estimated to reach the peak of the mountain at noon.

Lunch

At the top of Mt. Waita, we will cook a simple ramen noodle meal. This might sound simple, but at the top of the mountain, it is the most satisfying delicacy of all.

After having lunch, we will head down towards a small onsen town called Suji-yu. Suji-yu Onsen has a long history of over 1000 years and is nudged in neatly between mount Waita and the Kuju mountain range. Our hike down will be a gentle slope and we should be able to enjoy the beautiful sight of the Kuju mountain range towering before us. The last night will be spent at the atmospheric inn Shugetsu. All participants will enjoy private detached rooms with their own open-air hot springs for maximal relaxation on this final night.

Dinner

Dinner will be had at the hotel and for the ones who want to enjoy their final night for as long as possible, drinks can be enjoyed at the local izakaya Takumi nearby.

Activity: Hiking. 11 km course with a difference in elevation of 655 m. Wood and grassland trails. Some walking through high grass. Partially steep sections, no actual climbing necessary.

Difficulty: 3

Day 6 – Transfer to Kumamoto Airport/Fukuoka Airport, farewells

The final day will be a simple day. Enjoy a relaxing morning before we transfer to the airport and say our farewells.

After having breakfast at the hotel, we will check out from the hotel at 10:00, and the transportation leaves at 10:30, so make sure to be prepared. The estimated time of arrival at the airport is 12:30 (might vary slightly depending on the destination). Your guide will see you through all the way to the airport where we will say our heartfelt goodbyes. Thank you for taking part in our tour and we hope to see you soon again!

About us

SMO Minamioguni (SMO) is a company in the Aso area of Kumamoto that operates a small tour business called "Satoyama Journey." Our goal is to bring small groups of visitors on a unique journey into life in the Japanese countryside by introducing satoyama-culture, the Japanese way of living in harmony with the native woodlands and mountains. Furthermore, we also pride ourselves on being a local company. At SMO, we work with a complete perspective on community development, including everything from operating the farmers' market to supporting local entrepreneurship. We might be a comparatively new contender on the market, but our goals and aspiration know no limits!

Guides

▶ Through-guide Max Wall

Mr. Max is born in Sweden but live and work as a certified interpretation guide in Japan. He is a versatile person who, in addition to guiding, also manage relations with providers, develop new content, write articles, and work with the local community. Apart from having passed the highest level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test, he is certified as a social worker and in basic first aid. Max's goal is to revitalize the area and preserve local culture through responsible tourism.

▶ Komorebi-an Tayutayu

Ms. Shigeko Wakizono is a herb specialist and advisor who is very knowledgeable about nature and the local area. She lives mostly by eating what grows naturally and there is no one more fit to guide us on our nature walk while looking for wild plants. Furthermore, she also runs a small B&B and in 2020, she was nominated as a finalist, and awarded the "forever young" price, in Mrs. International 2020 (Japan).

▶ TRIM COMPANY

Our cycling guide is Mr. Hashimoto Kota, born and raised in the Aso area. He left Kumamoto once to work in Osaka but soon felt that the big city life didn't fit him and returned back home. He has been a dedicated cyclist for many years and decided to start his own company to arrange cycle tours and rent gear in the Aso area.

Mr. Max will be the main guide on our third day of mountain village cycling but Mr. Kota will follow us along in the support car to provide support whenever necessary.

Breakfast & Dinner

At some points in the itinerary breakfasts & dinners aren't specified. This indicates that we will eat at our accommodation. This is a common way of traveling in Japan and the meals are often one of the most sought-after experiences.

The meal often comes as a set course menu or buffet, containing seasonal Japanese dishes served beautifully on separate plates. This is a great way to experience Japanese cuisine and offers a complete, healthy and varied meal.

If you have certain requirements or wish to explore local restaurants, let us know and we will do our best to cater to your needs!

What is an Izakaya?

Izakaya is a type of Japanese bar/restaurant. Drinking and eating often goes hand in hand at this type of establishment, but of course you can enjoy soft drinks as well. The menu is often varied including everything from raw fish to fried potato. The izakaya-style resembles the Spanish "tapas" where you order a variety of smaller dishes and share. The izakaya is a casual environment and a popular place for after-work drinking in Japan.

What is an onsen?

If you visit Japan, you are guaranteed to come across the word onsen. Onsen means "hot spring" and is an important part of Japanese culture. There are over 27,000 onsen in Japan and these natural hot springs are often known for their atmospheric locations and health benefits. Kumamoto ranks in at number 5 on the list of most onsen in Japan and approximately half of them are located in Aso area.

Onsen is a great part of Japanese culture and here are a few things to make your first experience into a smooth one.

- Bathing is done naked. Sorry, no swimsuit allowed and your towel can't touch the water.
- Make sure to wash your body before entering the bath to keep it clean.
- The baths are shared spaces so be respectful and don't disturb other guests.
- Remember to dry yourself before entering the changing room, no one likes wet floors!

If you feel hesitant about sharing baths or being seen by others, there are many onsen in Kyushu that can be rented privately at a cheap price!

Relaxing in an onsen is a wonderful way to finish a day of adventures! Enjoy!

What is a ryokan?

Ryokan is a traditional Japanese inn where you can enjoy Japanese cuisine and onsen. They are often run locally and staying at a ryokan is a good way to experience a part of Japanese culture. The rooms mostly follow typical Japanese design with tatami mats, partitions made from rice paper and futon mattresses for sleeping on the floor. Furthermore, you will be provided with a "yukata", a light version of the famous kimono, that you can wear anywhere inside the ryokan, and sometimes even outside!

We often use ryokan and similar accommodations during our trips to support local business owners. If you know that you might have problems sleeping on a futon or any other concerns, make sure to let us know when you make your booking.

Information and Requirements

Dietary Restrictions

Experiencing the local food is, in and of itself, an adventure and we believe from the bottom of our hearts that it will enrich your overall trip. However, we understand that this isn't possible for all visitors and in all circumstances. With this in mind, we are more than willing to cater for allergies, dietary restriction, or other special requirements. To enable us to do this efficiently, it is important that you inform us at once through the Booking Form. Once we have your information, we will do our best to accommodate your dietary needs. We do hope that you will be understanding and flexible since the rural areas we visit might have certain limitations to what they can provide. For example, if you require halal food, the substitute may be a vegetarian dish instead.

Furthermore, from our experience MSG and gluten-free food can be hard to find, especially in rural areas. If you are allergic to any of these, make sure to let us know and we will give you more detailed information on what kind of food that can be expected.

Emergency Response Plan

Making sure that your trip ends safely is one of our absolute top priorities. Which is why our guide is educated in first-aid and always carry a first-aid kit. We also always have stand-by staff who control distance to closest hospitals and can act quickly in case of emergencies. Furthermore, if weather conditions are judged to be a safety risk, we might adjust the schedule to ensure a safe experience.

Weather Conditions

Aso is located on a high altitude ranging from about 450 – 1600 meter above sea level. This means that the weather and temperature can change greatly during one single day depending on location and circumstances. The average temperature in March/April is usually around 14 - 19°C during the day and 5 – 10°C during night. This means that the climate is mild but packing a few warmer options might be wise. The average precipitation during this season is relatively low hover slightly above 200 mm a month. Bringing a wind and waterproof jacket might be a good idea to keep the experience pleasant!

- (4) In the event that any modification to the content of the tour described in Article 11 above results in an increase in the costs required to implement the tour (including cancellation fees or other charges either paid or payable in connection with any travel services not received as a result of said modification), the Company shall modify the Tour Price to reflect said differential. However, this provision shall not apply in the event that the modification arises out of the lack of available seats, rooms or other capacity limitations despite the fact that service is otherwise provided by the relevant provider to other patrons (i.e. overbooking).

 - a. If the Customer is determined not to satisfy any gender, age, qualifications, skill or other requirement for tour participation explicitly pre-disclosed by the Company.

- ② If the Customer is unable to receive any travel services described in the pertinent web information or brochure due to any cause not attributable to the Customer, the Customer shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement without incurring any cancellation fees for the portion of travel services which the Customer was unable to receive.
- ③ In the situation described in the preceding Paragraph (1) ② of this Article 16, the Company shall refund the Customer for those portions of the Tour Price corresponding to the travel services that the Customer was unable to receive. (2) Termination Rights of Company

- ① The Company shall be entitled to terminate any portion of the Tour Participation Agreement in any of the situations described below. In such case, the Company shall be required to first provide the Customer with an explanation of the basis for said termination.

- ④ In the event of termination of the Tour Participation Agreement by the Company pursuant to Subparagraph (2)① of this Article 16, termination shall be applicable only with respect to the future contractual relationship between the Company and the Customer. To wit, the obligations of the Company in connection with any travel services already received by the Customer shall be deemed to have been effectively discharged.

Article 17 Refund of Tour Price

- (4) Individual travel plans are not accompanied by tour conductors or any similar such personnel. If the Customer is traveling without the accompaniment of a tour conductor, the Customer is required to manage his/her own travel itinerary. Although the Customer will be provided with the vouchers required in order to receive travel services, the Customer is responsible for undertaking all formalities required in order to receive the travel services. Please contact your sales office in the event of the suspension of any travel services by any transportation carrier or other provider or in the event that the Customer unexpectedly needs to cancel travel for personal reasons. If you are unable to communicate with your sales office because it is closed or outside business hours, please contact the providers scheduled to provide you with any remaining services (hotel, transportation, etc.) in order to inform them of your cancellation and/or to process any such cancellation. If you fail to contact the service providers to inform them of your cancellation and/or to process any such cancellation, you will be deemed to have forfeited your rights and will therefore become ineligible to receive any refunds. Thank you for your understanding.
- (5) For segments of travel unaccompanied by a tour conductor or segments of travel or services for which local staff support is not scheduled to be furnished, the Customer should make the necessary arrangements to obtain and secure alternative services in the event of the occurrence of any cause (including but not limited to adverse weather conditions) necessitating a change to any scheduled services.

However, said responsibility shall only apply in those instances in which notice is received by the Company within two (2) years from the day following the occurrence of any such loss.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions set forth in the preceding Paragraph (1), losses occurring on a day during which no travel services that constitute part of the Company-organized tour are furnished shall not be considered as having occurred during the Customer's participation in the tour as long as said day is explicitly indicated in the pertinent web information or brochure as a day on which no travel services are to be furnished.

(3) The Company shall not pay any indemnity or solatium under Paragraph (1) above for any losses incurred by the Customer during participation in an agent-organized tour if said losses result from a willful act or drunk driving by the Customer, illness or similar such cause, or as a result of any accident occurring during any dangerous activity, including but not limited to mountain climbing (involving the use of mountain climbing gear such as ice axes, climbing irons, ropes and/or hammers), luge riding, bobsled riding, skydiving, hang gliding, flying aboard any ultralight aircraft (powered hang gliders, microlight aircraft, etc.) and/or gyroplaning during free activity time if such activity is not included in the agent-organized tour. The foregoing exception shall not apply in the event that said activity is included in the agent-organized tour itinerary.

- (4) The Company shall not pay any indemnification for losses in connection with any items identified as excluded from indemnification in the Company's General Terms and Conditions, including but not limited to cash, securities, credit cards, vouchers, airline tickets, passports, driver's licenses, visas, certificates of deposit, certificates of savings (including passbooks and ATM cards), data or any similar such items, and contact lenses.
- (5) If the Company is subject to an obligation to pay any indemnification under Paragraph (1) above as well as an obligation to pay any compensation for losses as described under the preceding Article 19, the Company shall be deemed to have performed its obligation to pay both said indemnification and said compensation to the extent of the amount paid by the Company in performance of either of these two obligations.

Article 21 Responsibilities of the Customer

- (1) The Customer shall be responsible for compensating the Company for any losses incurred by the Company as a result of any willful or negligent act or violation of law, public order or decency by the Customer or any failure of the Customer to comply with the provisions of the Company's General Terms and Conditions.
- (2) In executing the Agent-Organized Tour Participation Agreement, the Customer shall strive to make effective use of the information furnished by the Company and to understand the provisions of said Agreement, including but not limited to the Customer's rights and obligations.
- (3) In order to ensure the expeditious receipt of the travel services described in the contract documents, if the Customer becomes aware subsequent to the commencement of the tour that travel services have been provided that differ from those specified in the contract documents, the Customer shall promptly and at the affected point of travel bring said discrepancy to the attention of a tour conductor, meet-and-greet staff, local guide, provider of the relevant travel services or the sales location where the Customer signed up to participate in the tour.
- (4) The Company reserves the right to take any necessary measures in the event that the Company deems that a Customer requires protection during travel for any reason, including but not limited to illness or injury. Article 22 Optional Tours; Reference Information purposes of the applicability of the provisions of Article 20 (Special Compensation) above. Company-Implemented Optional Tours shall be explicitly so identified in the pertinent web information, brochure or other relevant literature.

- (2) If the pertinent web information or brochure explicitly indicate that an optional tour is operated by a company other than the Company, the Company shall pay the indemnities and/or solatiums described in Article 20 (Special Compensation) above for losses sustained by the Customer during participation in said optional tour as described in said Paragraph 20 (with the exception that this provision shall not apply if the Customer participates in said optional tour on a day during the agent-organized tour on which “no activity is scheduled” and said absence of scheduled activity is indicated in the pertinent web information, brochure or final documentation.) In addition, the responsibilities of the optional tour operator and the Customer shall be governed entirely by the policies established by said operator and applicable local law.
- (3) If the Company provides information regarding available sports or other activities on any pertinent website, brochure or other relevant literature for ‘reference purposes’, the Company shall explicitly indicate that said information is simply being provided for reference. In such case, while the Special Compensation Rules described in Article 20 above shall apply with respect to any damages incurred by the Customer during participation in any such sports or other activity (with the exception that this provision shall not apply if the Customer participates in said optional tour on a day during the agent- organized tour on which “no activity is scheduled” and said absence of scheduled activity is indicated in the pertinent web information, brochure or final documentation), the Company shall assume no other liability in connection therewith.
