

Around Daisetsuzan | 6 Day Hiking Tour

Designated as Japan's National Park in 1934, Daisetsuzan holds a special place in the hearts of the people of Hokkaido. The park covers over 2,300 square kilometres (570,000 acres) -bigger than the size of Tokyo!- and is home to a dramatic mountain range, giving Daisetsuzan the nickname "the Roof of Hokkaido".

Keigetsu Omachi, a writer of the Meiji and Taisho periods (late 1800s through early 1900s), traversed these peaks long before a trail had been established. He famously said, "To understand the height of a mountain, climb Mt. Fuji. To understand the vastness of a mountain, climb the Daisetsuzan mountains."

On this itinerary we discover the best of the vast Daisetsuzan National Park. We traverse between the two prime peaks of Mt. Asahidake and Mt. Kurodake in its northern part, and we explore as far south as Lake Shikaribetsu. This tour will be perfect for hiking enthusiasts who also enjoy cultural exploration and water activities between hiking.

Home to the indigenous people of Ainu (pronounced as Ainu), it has a relatively short history of land development compared to other areas of Japan, which has left a large area of mountains and forests intact for us to enjoy nature and outdoors.

Daisetsuzan National Park sits in the heart of Hokkaido, with good access from Hokkaido's second largest city Asahikawa, where you'll meet the group to start the tour. The closest airport to the starting point of the tour is Asahikawa Airport (AKJ).

Day-by-day Itinerary

Day 1

Meet your group in Asahikawa City, Guided Hiking at Mt. Arashiyama

Your group will meet at around 10am in Central Asahikawa. Once everyone is together in Asahikawa, we'll spend some time to get to know each other and the programme for our upcoming adventure before heading off to Mount Arashiyama to warm up our legs.

Mount Arashiyama is an urban forest park, popular with Asahikawa locals for its accessibility and the panorama of the city from the top. For the local Ainu (the indigenous people of Hokkaido), this is a special place known as "ci-nomi-sir" in their language. They perform an annual ritual at the end of May here, blessing the Gods and praying for another year full of peace and happiness.

After our hike, we will have lunch with the Ainu in a replica of a traditional house called "cise" and learn about their culture, history and how they relate to nature in their beliefs and lifestyles. In the late afternoon, we will travel by van for approximately one hour to Asahidake Onsen situated at 1,100m/3,600ft above sea level. We stay the night here in the crisp mountain air enjoying the natural hot springs fed from Mount Asahidake.

Activity - Hiking | Distance - 2km/1.2miles | Time - 1 to 2 hours | Elevation - 120m/393ft
Accommodation - Asahidake Onsen | Ryokan | Private room with ensuite | Onsen Spa
Included meals - Lunch, Dinner

Activity: Hiking

Difficulty: 1 / 5 (Relaxed/Social)

Day 2

Guided Hiking from Mt. Asahidake to Mt. Kurodake

Asahidake Onsen is a popular entry point to Daisetsuzan National Park. The park is Japan's largest in size, and one of the first designated as a National Park in 1934. While Daisetsuzan is typically known as the Roof of Hokkaido, in the Ainu world, it is known as "kamuy-mintar", meaning the Playground of the Gods. We make our way into this sacred location by cable car to Sugatami Station at 1,600m/5,250ft, then start climbing to the summit of Mt. Asahidake (2,291m/7,516ft), the highest peak in Hokkaido. Our journey continues on the outer ring of the majestic Ohachidaira volcanic caldera, which was formed by an eruption about 30,000 years ago. In the afternoon, we set foot on the summit of Mt. Hokkaidake (2,149m/7,051ft) and Mt. Kurodake (1,984m/6,510ft), and then descend into the Sounkyo Gorge with the help of a chair lift followed by another cable car. Sounkyo Gorge is a picturesque onsen village nestled between the mountains and the cliffs, making it a popular destination for onsen, hiking, skiing and our welcome home for the night.

Activity - Hiking | Distance - 12km/7.5miles | Time - 8 to 9 hours | Elevation - 860m/2,822ft

Accommodation - Sounkyo Gorge | Ryokan | Private room with ensuite | Onsen Spa

Activity: Hiking

Difficulty: 4 / 5 (Vigorous)

Day 3

River Rafting in Sounkyo Gorge

Today we give our legs a rest from hiking and raft down the Ishikari River in the Sounkyo Gorge. The unique geographical feature of this gorge is the columnar joints rising straight from water level, carved over a long period of time by Ishikari River. Being the third longest river in Japan, the Ishikari flows 268km (166 miles) from the Daisetsuzan mountains to the Sea of Japan. Since the local Ainu people used to catch salmon here, the river carries special significance as an important source of food and is still used for religious rituals today. We raft this significant river for a half-day in the morning, and then travel by van for an hour to Daisetsu Kogen Onsen. We stay at a historic inn which stands alone in the middle of the Daisetsuzan mountains with very few people around. We highly recommend bathing in the open-air spa at night and marvelling at the incredible night skies of Hokkaido!

Activity - River Rafting | Grade - Between Class II and Class IV Rapids

Accommodation - Daisetsu Kogen Onsen | Mountain lodge

Shared room with common facilities | Onsen Spa

Included meals - Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Activity: River Rafting

Difficulty: 3 / 5 (Moderate)

Day 4

Guided Hiking to Daisetsu Kogen Plateau & Brown Bear Habitat

Daisetsu Kogen serves as a trailhead for the popular Kogen Numa (alpine tarns) hiking trail. This area is far from civilization and home to a great number of native brown bears, higuma, which are often spotted by hikers here. Before we set out on the Kogen Numa hiking trail, we receive a safety briefing at Higuma Information Centre about the latest sightings and the rules to respect the wildlife and stay safe in higuma territory. Situated between 1,230m-1,460m (4035ft-4790ft) above sea level, the Kogen Numa provides opportunities to observe alpine flora and over a dozen alpine tarns of various sizes scattered along the trail. Once we return from our hike, we board our van to transfer to Nukabira Onsen, the hot spring village situated by Lake Nukabira. We overnight at a historical hotel that has been renovated into a modern Japanese-style inn and is run by a friendly local family.

Activity - Hiking | Distance - 8km/5miles | Time - 5 to 6 hours | Elevation - 260m/853ft

Accommodation - Nukabira Onsen | Ryokan | Shared room with common facilities | Onsen Spa

Included meals - Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Activity: Hiking

Difficulty: 4 / 5 (Vigorous)

Day 5

Guided Hiking to Mt. Hakuunzan

We'll kick the day off with a drive to neighbouring Lake Shikaribetsu on a road which is only open during the snowless months from April to October. After approximately 30 mins, we'll arrive at the start of the trail to Mt. Hakuunzan on the shore of Lake Shikaribetsu. We will take a loop walk to the top of Mt. Hakuunzan (1,186m/3,890ft) and back on the lakeshore trail, which usually takes about 3 hours to complete. From the summit there's a stunning view of Lake Shikaribetsu and if we are lucky, a chance to spot the northern pika (rock rabbit) in their rocky dwellings. We hop in the van again and head for our accommodation in the Shikaribetsukyo Gorge. This site is cherished by outdoor onsen lovers because of its remote location and authenticity of the natural hot springs.

The upper valley is home to several secluded outdoor onsen sites formed by the river. If you feel up for an extra excursion this afternoon, your guide will lead you on a walk, taking bathing suits and towels with us to revel in this 100% natural onsen experience.

Activity - Hiking | Distance - 5km/3miles | Time - 3 to 4 hours | Elevation - 280m/919ft

Accommodation - Shikaribetsukyo Gorge | Ryokan | Private room with ensuite | Onsen Spa

Included meals - Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Activity: Hiking

Difficulty: 4 / 5 (Vigorous)

Day 6

Farewell lunch, transfer to Sapporo to say our goodbyes

Today is our last day and we wrap up the tour with a cultural experience before making our way to Sapporo. We travel by van for an hour to Shintoku Town, recognised as the soba noodle capital. This region, known as Tokachi, was colonised by farmers from the mainland around 120 years ago. One of the first crops they tried to cultivate after clearing the forest was the soba buckwheat, due to it being a fast-growing and low-maintenance crop that was suited well for the early days in agricultural development. In Shintoku Town, not only will we taste fresh handmade soba noodles, but we'll also learn to make them ourselves! After an early lunch, we set out for a 1.5 hour drive to Obihiro Airport.

Activity - Soba making

Food & Accommodation

Breakfast & Dinner

All breakfasts and dinners on this tour will be served at our accommodation. It is a typical way for Japanese travellers to indulge by staying in lodgings with “onsen” natural hot springs on site. The meals will be set menus, containing traditional Japanese dishes beautifully presented in separate plates & bowls. If you are a master of chopsticks, these skills will be handy, otherwise western utensils are usually available on request. Eating at the accommodation allows us to relax and enjoy the local cuisine dressed in “yukata” (a casual cotton kimono), which takes away the hassle of packing a change of evening and/or morning clothes. We can make arrangements for any dietary requirements so please be sure to let us know your needs in advance.

Lunch

On this tour we will eat lunch in various settings. On Day 1, lunch will be provided by our Ainu host, we will taste traditional soup and vegetables prepared in a similar way to how Ainu families would have in the early days. On Days 2 and 4, we will be in the middle of mountains around lunch time so we will provide you with the Japanese hikers' staple, “onigiri” rice balls typically wrapped in “nori” seaweed. On Days 3 and 5, we will call in to small local restaurants and cafes offering Japanese style lunches such as noodle soup, “don” rice dishes and curry with rice. We will never leave you hungry!

Travel to the Meeting Point

We will meet in central Asahikawa between 9:30 am and 10:00 am on the first day. The closest airport to Asahikawa City is Asahikawa Airport (AKJ). The airport bus for downtown Asahikawa is scheduled to connect with incoming flights from Tokyo and usually depart 30 mins after arrival. The cost is 630 yen per person. It is recommended that you arrive in Asahikawa the day before the tour starts, in this case, we are more than happy to assist you with booking your pre-tour accommodation.

If you are flying into Asahikawa Airport (AKJ) from Tokyo Haneda (HND) on the first day, please make sure you reserve an early morning flight that arrives at AKJ before 9:30 am, which allows us to pick you up from the airport on the day.

An alternative to flying is to travel by train (Japan Railway, abbr. JR), which travels every 30-60 mins between Sapporo and Asahikawa. Upon booking, please let us know your travel plans to Asahikawa, and we will confirm in detail where and what time we will meet on the first day.

What We Offer As Our Services

Small Group

We find value in maintaining friendly, small-group settings. That's why we cap the maximum number of our groups at 10 people on scheduled tours. This allows us to reduce the social and environmental impacts caused by our travels, as well as giving us the opportunity to visit smaller facilities, which often give us more interesting insights and unique experiences.

Local Guides

Our guides are passionate travellers and adventurers themselves, who spend their free time exploring Hokkaido's great outdoors all year around. Feel free to make use of their knowledge and experience by asking questions! They are also certified as advanced first-aiders and trained to respond to emergency situations on tours.

Guides

Yasuhiro Arata (Yasu)

Certified Hokkaido Outdoor Guide

(Summer & winter trekking)

Yasu is a year-round mountain guide who has been guiding hiking, trekking and winter backcountry trips in Hokkaido for more than 15 years. He lives in Furano where he was born and raised, he loves being just a stone's throw away from the Tokachi and Daisetsuzan mountain ranges. He's also a super dad to three children and a PTA board member, he plays an active role in local school events and also provides children and youth with innovative outdoor learning opportunities. In his early twenties, he spent time in India and Bangladesh as a Red Cross volunteer, which profoundly impacted the way he sees the world. His passion for trekking and travelling has taken him to places as far and as high as Denali and Aconcagua. One of our favourite things about Yasu is his outstanding singing and special talent for speaking with bears!

Yuka Obitsu (Yuka)

Yuka was born and brought up in the countryside of Saitama Prefecture next to Tokyo. Since her early girlhood she's enjoyed playing outdoors in nature, which led her to a college of medicine and sport. After graduating from the college, she worked as an athletic trainer for athletes and people in the entertainment industry for eight years. In her free time she liked going out for hiking and walking in nature. Her growing passion for mountain climbing eventually took Yuka all the way to the Down Under in 2018. For a year, Yuka worked as a nature guide on the foothills of Aoraki Mt. Cook in New Zealand. She's recently found her new nest in Furano where she continues working as a nature & hiking guide. Yuka is looking forward to hosting the visitors to Hokkaido and helping them discover the natural beauty of Hokkaido and Japan.

Information and Requirements

Dietary Restrictions

We believe that eating like the locals is the best way of experiencing Hokkaido's unique culture. However, we understand that it's not possible for everyone to do this and we're more than happy to cater for food allergies, dietary restrictions and special requirements. If you have any diet restrictions or preferences, please tell us in the Registration Form at the time of booking, and we will do our best to accommodate your dietary needs.

In some rural areas particularly, we may ask you for some flexibility. For example, if you require halal food, we may be able to substitute for a vegetarian option instead. Please also be aware that for those who are allergic to MSG we may struggle to arrange a good alternative at every meal in Japan. Some of our overseas guests in the past found it difficult to find ready-made foods completely free of MSG, especially when buying from convenience stores. Most Japanese supermarkets sell simple foods like plain bread, boiled eggs, vegetables and fruits, so you should always be able to find something suitable. The most important thing about dietary requirements is to let us know in advance so we can prepare and organize the foods you need.

Emergency Response Plan

Your safety is our top priority, closely followed by fun and comfort! All our tour guides have years of guiding experience in the outdoors under their belt. At Adventure Hokkaido, we require all our guides to be certified as Advanced First-Aid Responders or Wilderness First-Aiders. At all times, our guides will carry a first-aid kit, as well as have an extra kit in our vehicle. Depending on the terrain and the potential risks it poses on each trip, our guides will also have the necessary safety and climbing equipment.

In case of heavy rain, strong winds or other unsafe weather conditions for hiking or cycling, there may be times when we have to change our tour plan. In such cases, we will try to substitute the original activity with other alternatives such as sightseeing, visiting museums or hot springs. We take charge of turning a bad day around into a fun day!

Weather Conditions

Hokkaido's pleasant summer attracts many visitors from other regions of Japan escaping from the unbearable summer heat and humidity. September is a transition month from summer to autumn, the days start getting shorter, and the colour of foliage starts changing in the higher altitudes. Generally, in the third week of September, the first snow of the season falls on the highest peaks of Hokkaido.

The average temperature in Asahikawa City in September is approximately 16°C / 61°F, and the average rainfall is 131mm (5 inches). On the other hand, the average temperature at the summit of Mt Asahidake (2,291m/7,516ft) in September is only 3°C / 37°F.

The weather in the Hokkaido mountains is very changeable, we don't get too surprised if snow falls in our mountains in the middle of summer, August. Sadly, underestimating the risks of low temperatures has contributed to deadly accidents and hypothermia in the past in Daisetsuzan National Park. Please make sure to bring the equipment and items detailed in the "what to bring" list.

What is an onsen?

Most ryokan have an onsen spa, that is, natural hot springs. As a volcanically active landscape, Japan has well over 25,000 natural hot springs scattered throughout the country. Since ancient times, the people of Japan have loved onsen and will travel far and wide to visit famous onsen establishments.

Please keep in mind that there are certain protocols that go with bathing in an onsen, however they're super simple!

- You bathe in your birthday suit, that's right, no clothes or swimwear is allowed in the bath. Don't worry, no one is looking!
- Take a shower before you enter the water. It's important for the onsen waters to stay clean so make sure to rinse all soap off and long hair should be tied up. You can take a small towel in if you're feeling shy, but the towel cannot touch the waters.
- Be respectful of others. Do not run, talk too loudly, drink alcohol, or splash around while in the onsen.

Don't forget to take in a hand towel, so that you can lightly dry yourself before returning to the changing room. We're quite fussy about keeping the floors of the changing room dry. Last but not least, relax and enjoy yourself!

What is a ryokan?

On our tours, we use ryokan as much as possible to support the local tourism businesses. A ryokan (旅館) is a traditional Japanese inn and it is the epitome of Japanese hospitality and cuisine. They are often located in natural surroundings and feature Japanese style rooms with tatami mats with rice paper partitions and futon (sleeping mattresses). Each ryokan prides itself on its cuisine and features seasonal local ingredients. Many ryokan also have on-site natural hot springs for their guests to enjoy during their stay.

Here are some good-to-know facts about ryokan to avoid unwelcome surprises.

- You are sleeping on the floor. A traditional Japanese room does not have western beds, instead futon bedding is provided. Often ryokan staff enter your room and prepare your futon while you are out for dinner.
- Ryokan provide "yukata", which is a traditional night robe that looks like a kimono. You can wear it to the hot spring spa and also to dinner, basically anywhere within the ryokan facility. Because in the evening we mostly dine in house, you don't have to bring a lot of evening clothes as long as you think you will be comfortable hanging around in your yukata. Our guides will explain how to wear yukata properly if you are unsure.
