Day 2

Guided hiking tour at sulfur mountain Mt. Iou

We will depart for the volcano hike from the Kawayu Eco-Museum Center with a local nature guide. This area has developed a unique ecosystem thanks to volcanic gas and acidic soil. As an example, the alpine plant Labrador tea can be found at an altitude of only 150 meters (492 feet), which is rare. The area is clearly divided into different zones called "coniferous forest zone", "broad-leaved forest zone", "azalea zone", and "high pine zone". We can see how the scenery constantly changes within a short walk of about 2.5 km/1.5 miles.

After some relaxing hiking, enjoy a catered lunch prepared by Lakeside inn Pension Kussharera, famous for its bread made with local natural yeast, at the Mt. Iou Rest House at the foot of Mt. Iou. After lunch, we set out on the Mt. Iou volcano trail. Hikers are allowed here only if accompanied by certified guides. The last eruption of Mt. Iou was a steam explosion hundreds of years ago, and the surrounding area is still filled with a unique sulfur odor. Yellow sulfur crystals can be seen around the fumaroles. We can feel up close how the heartbeat of the earth spreads throughout the mountain.

Once we came back to the bottom of Mt. Iou, we head to Akan town from Kawayu with a van. On arriving at the Akan Eco-Museum Center, we will receive a short introduction of the Akan district to the Akan Mashu National Park.

Meakandake is a compound volcano with 10 mountains forming a complex mountain body that was formed after repeated eruptions, and it is still active today. The foot of Mt. Arigatou Farm and Shiawase Cheese Factory– (arigatou means “thank you” and Shiawase means “Happy”)- is characterized by year-round grazing without stress on cows, and their cheese has a gentle taste with the scent of seasonal green grass. They use warm raw milk freshly squeezed every morning so that they do not disturb the rhythm of nature. Their cheese is carefully manufactured in a traditional copper kettle, and the finished cheese is aged in a semi-underground aging chamber where the temperature is stable throughout the year.

The last meal of this trip is a BBQ lunch in front of the Shiawase Cheese Factory using the farm’s cheese. After the meal, we will hop on a van and head to JR Obihiro Station. ## Guides

◆Tour Guide

Chie Moue / English instructor, interpreter guide, English customer service consultant, forest instructor

She majored in organic chemistry at university. After that, she worked at the Hokkaido Regional Forest Office with the aim of contributing to the community. Engaged in forestry and forest environment education work, she knows the "power to heal people" of forests. She realized the fun of communicating and sharing the splendor of the forest to people and started to act as a forest instructor. After guiding overseas forestry trainees, she became motivated to "work using English", and with the aim of re-learning English, she built her career as an English instructor and interpreter and became an English customer service consultant. She is developing a unique course that weaves "English x customer service x tourism", such as a "forest course" that makes use of the experience of a forest instructor and a training course for English teachers and English guides. She is also involved in tour development as well as creating English notation for facilities in cities, towns and villages all over Japan, and is also focusing on "disseminating the appeal of the region in English."

◆Trekking guide at Mt Iou

Tourism Teshikaga

In collaboration with various industries, they aim to make the city independent and sustainable and aim to be a city that everyone can be proud of. In order to realize these objectives, they thought that they needed a company that could commercialize and sell the charm of the area, and in 2009 they established the travel agency "Tourism Teshikaga". They work closely with the local community to provide good local tour products necessary for regional revitalization. While giving consideration to environmental conservation, they are contributing to the development of the region by communicating the unique attractions of the region such as the nature and historical culture of Teshikaga Town to many people.

◆Climbing and Walking guide in Akan

Gaku Yasui, Akan Nature Center

Yasui who is the representative of the Akan Nature Center, mainly plans and manages canoes and nature guides of Lake Akan and Lake Onneto. He previously worked as a mountain climbing guide centered in the Hidaka Mountains, however, the beauty of the Lake Akan area attracted him to moved to Akan in 1998 and launched the Akan Nature Center as a comprehensive outdoor guide company. He mainly offers programs that are easy for small groups to participate in.

◆Cheese Craftsperson

Sachio Honma, Shiawase Cheese Factory

After graduating from a local agricultural university in Nagano prefecture, he moved to Hokkaido in search of a place where he could make his ideal cheese in order to become a cheese craftsperson that he had longed for since high school. He visited a ranch in Hokkaido, had freshly squeezed raw milk divided, and made cheese on the spot with the pan and cassette stove he brought. He strongly sympathized with Yoshikawa who is the owner of "Arigatou Farm " in Ashoro town. Yoshikawa's attitude towards dairy farming at "Arigatou Farm" attracted him so much and he decided to make cheese from the milk of "Arigatou Farm". In 2013 he started manufacturing cheese as "Arigatou Farm and Shiawase Cheese Factory" and became independent as "Shiawase Cheese Factory " in 2016. Also, in this year, he was appointed Garde et Jure from the Guild de Fromager Association.

Information and Requirements

Dietary Restrictions

We believe that eating like the locals is the best way of experiencing Hokkaido's unique culture. However, we understand that it's not possible for everyone to do this and we're more than happy to cater for food allergies, dietary restrictions, and special requirements. If you have any diet restrictions or preferences, please tell us in the Registration Form at the time of booking, and we will do our best to accommodate your dietary needs.

In some rural areas particularly, we may ask you for some flexibility. For example, if you require halal food, we may be able to substitute for a vegetarian option instead. Please also be aware that for those who are allergic to MSG we may struggle to arrange a good alternative at every meal in Japan. Some of our overseas guests in the past found it difficult to find ready-made foods completely free of MSG, especially when buying from convenience stores. Most Japanese supermarkets sell simple foods like plain bread, boiled eggs, vegetables and fruits, so you should always be able to find something suitable. The most important thing about dietary requirements is to let us know in advance so we can prepare and organize the foods you need.

Emergency Response Plan

Your safety is our top priority, closely followed by fun and comfort! All our tour guides have years of guiding experience in the outdoors under their belt and have already taken an advanced firefighting lifesaving course. At all times, our guides will carry a first-aid kit, as well as have an extra kit in our vehicle and hold an Emergency plan with the nearest emergency hospital for any severe accident.

In case of heavy rain, strong winds or other unsafe weather conditions for trekking/climbing, there may be times when we have to change our tour plan. In such cases, we will try to substitute the original activity with other alternatives such as sightseeing, visiting museums or hot springs. We take charge of turning a bad day around into a fun day!

Weather Condition

Hokkaido's pleasant summer attracts many visitors from the other regions of Japan escaping from the unbearable summer heat and humidity. Generally, in the third week of September, the first snow of the season falls on the highest peaks of Hokkaido.

June to September is a perfect time for sightseeing as the sunny days continue. In June and September short-sleeved shirts are good for some days, but long-sleeved shirts are a must for some chilly days, especially in the morning and evening, it gets cold, so you need a jacket, sweater, and trainer. In July and August, there are several midsummer days when the maximum daytime temperature exceeds 30°C/86F, but the mornings and evenings are still cool.

What is an onsen?

Most Hokkaido Local Hotel and Ryokan have an onsen spa, that is, natural hot springs. As a volcanically active landscape, Japan has well over 25,000 natural hot springs scattered throughout the country. Since ancient times, the people of Japan have loved onsen and will travel far and wide to visit famous onsen establishments.

Please keep in mind that there are certain protocols that go with bathing in an onsen, however they're super simple!

- You bathe in your birthday suit, that's right, no clothes or swimwear is allowed in the bath. Don't worry, no one is looking!
- Take a shower before you enter the water. It's important for the onsen waters to stay clean so make sure to rinse all soap off and long hair should be tied up. You can take a small towel in if you're feeling shy, but the towel cannot touch the waters.
- Be respectful of others. Do not run, talk too loudly, drink alcohol, or splash around while in the onsen.

Don't forget to take in a hand towel, so that you can lightly dry yourself before returning to the changing room. We're quite fussy about keeping the floors of the changing room dry. Last but not least, relax and enjoy yourself!

What is a ryokan?

On our tours, we use ryokan as much as possible to support local tourism businesses. A ryokan (旅館) is a traditional Japanese inn and it is the epitome of Japanese hospitality and cuisine. They are often located in natural surroundings and feature Japanese style rooms with tatami mats with rice paper partitions and futon (sleeping mattresses). Each ryokan prides itself on its cuisine and features seasonal local ingredients. Many ryokan also have on-site natural hot springs for their guests to enjoy during their stay.

Here are some good-to-know facts about ryokan to avoid unwelcome surprises.

- You are sleeping on the floor. A traditional Japanese room does not have western beds, instead futon bedding is provided. Often ryokan staff enter your room and prepare your futon while you are out for dinner.
- Ryokan provide "yukata", which is a traditional night robe that looks like a kimono. You can wear it to the hot spring spa and also to dinner, basically anywhere within the ryokan facility. Because in the evening we mostly dine in house, you don't have to bring a lot of evening clothes as long as you think you will be comfortable hanging around in your yukata. Our guides will explain how to wear yukata properly if you are unsure.
