

The blessings of volcanoes | 4 day canoeing and cultural interaction tour in Onuma Quasi-National Park

In this 4-day tour, we put ourselves into the beautiful scenery created by the volcano and fully enjoy the food grow in this fertile land thanks to the blessings of the volcanoes.

Mt. Komagatake had a huge eruption in 1640 and blocked a river, which created Lake Onuma, lake Konuma, 126 small islands in the lake, and Nagareyama terrain. Nagareyama terrain formed small mountains around the lake and together with lakes and small islands make the Onuma-Quasi national park unique landscape. We will hike to this active volcano Mt. Komagatake, paddle through among small islands in the lake with a canoe, taste the blessing of volcanoes as well as get an insight into the life coexisting with the volcano.

Onuma Quasi-National Park is registered as a wetland under the Ramsar Convention in 2012 to protect nature including migrant birds and it attracts many nature lovers. The Onuma area incorporated Western-style agriculture for the first time in Hokkaido due to the influence of the city of Hakodate which opened as one of Japan's first trading ports after abolishing the Japanese isolation policy in 1854. Since then, the Lake Onuma area has continued to produce high-quality agricultural products and dairy products, as well as nourished rivers, support delicious seafood.

Day 1

Group meets in Hakodate airport, Guided Hiking at Mt.Hakodate

We meet rest of the group around 13:00 at Hakodate Airport. Once everyone has joined the group, we will spend some time getting to know each other and having a briefing for our upcoming adventure program before heading to Mt. Hakodate where is only 20 min away from the airport by van.

Mt. Hakodate, a symbol of Hakodate city, is known for its beautiful night view. Many tourists visit this place throughout the year. Mt. Hakodate is not only a popular tourist spot, but it also has abundant nature including 800 types of natural plants. It is also possible to hike the mountain while looking down at the historical buildings such as churches and temples in the Hakodate city center. We can also see the Tsugaru Strait which also marks the biogeographic boundary of the Blakiston's Line. There are completely different ecosystems lies between Hokkaido and the main island, Honshu.

Mt. Hakodate was once used as a fortress in the old times during the war. While hiking, we can see six parts of ruins including the battle command center, and storage. It is known as a secret place since there are not many signs on the mountain directing people where to go. It is easy to hike with only 90 minutes to the top of Mt. Hakodate (334 m/1095 ft) from the foot of the mountain.

After the hiking, we will take a cable car down the mountain and head to our accommodation with an hour's drive. Our hotel for the first night is located at the foot of Mt. Komagatake which you will hike on the next day. The accommodation is surrounded by a beautiful forest.

Day 2

Guided Hiking at Mt.Komagatake and Day Camp experience

Today, we will go for a morning hike to Mt.Komagatake. This active volcano is a landmark of the Oshima Peninsula that spreads out in front of us. Originally Mt.Komagatake was a cone-shaped active volcano like Mt. Fuji, but now it has become a unique square-shaped mountain due to repeated eruptions.

We will start the hike from the middle part of Mt.Komagatake (500 m/1640 ft point) to a place called "Horseback" (approximately 900 m/2952 ft). We will overlook Lake Onuma which looks like it has been decorated with floating islands and spotted small mountains. By looking at the formation of the entire terrain of this volcanic ash zone, we will understand the geographical relationship between Onuma Quasi-National Park and "Funkawan" which means the Volcanic Bay.

Enjoy a one-plate lunch using local ingredients after descending from the mountain. In the afternoon, we will visit the farmers in Nanae town, the birthplace of Western agriculture in Hokkaido. Have a pleasant chat with the farmers and purchase their products like vegetables, meat, firewood, and even charcoal. We will use all of it for our tonight's BBQ dinner at a cozy day campsite by the lake. At dinner time, we will make our next day's canoeing adventure plan with the canoe guide and do some gear checks and lessons after that.

Day 3

Guided Canoeing at Lake Onuma and Japanese Kelp Experience

Our following day is a fantastic paddle of three hours from Lake Onuma to Lake Konuma. These lakes are full of floating islands and small mountains which we saw from “the Horseback” at Mt.Komagatake on the day before. It is time to see how the canoe adventure we discussed with the guide last night works! A unique lunch is awaiting us during canoeing.

In the afternoon, we will learn about the “umami” taste and charm of the finest Japanese dashi kelp "Makombu" from a local fisherman in Shikabe town. Japanese food is said to be healthy, and it is very popular all around the world. The basis of this Japanese food is "dashi" which is mainly made from Japanese kelp. Dashi could be one of the reasons why Japanese food has been selected as an intangible cultural property due to its excellent nutritional balance. The basic “dashi” is now attracting attention from around the world. To understand the essence of dashi, we will take a short boat trip to visit a kelp breeding ground and a waterfall that supplies nutrients to the sea. After that, we will visit a kelp workshop and try to make true kelp dashi.

Hop on a van and drive 1 hour to Esashi where is one of the most historical towns in Hokkaido. This evening, we will enjoy a dinner with plenty of kelp and dashi at a local restaurant.

Day 4

Zazen experience and “Mochi-tsuki” rice pounding experience, farewells

Today’s plan starts with a “zazen and morning porridge” experience at Shogakuin, a local temple. We place ourselves in a quiet meditation hall and take a leisurely breath to prepare our breathing, body, and mind and heal the tiredness of the trip. In Buddhism, eating is also part of the training. Through trying the traditional Japanese way of eating, we can feel gratitude for food and touch the spirit of the Japanese. We may have a mysterious feeling that the ordinary porridge tastes very delicious. And by doing zazen meditation, we can do some deep introspection and deepen our experiences of this trip.

After having a refreshing morning experience, we will be on the road for 1 hour and head to a private house of a glutinous rice farmer whose grandfather moved to Hokkaido to cultivate the land from Iwate prefecture as a pioneer. Perform the traditional Japanese food culture “mochi-tsuki”, which is pounding rice cakes with constant rhythm. Today we can taste freshly made mochi! The farmer Mr.Chiba will take us for a backyard tour on the rice fields and show us some rice milling too. Enjoy chatting and lunch with him and his family members. We will see his rice fields are the iconic scenery for the Japanese. We can also touch with the spiritual culture of rural areas such as Buddhist altars “Butsudan” and Shinto altars “Kamidana” that have been set right next to each other in his house.

After finishing all the wonderful experiences, we go to JR Yakumo Station and say our goodbye.

Our mission is to create for you a journey of a lifetime, every time you travel with us.

Tour Guides:

Yoshihiro Akai (Yoshi)

Yoshi was born in 1990 in a small town, called Yakumo, in Hokkaido. After spending his childhood in Yakumo, he went to a high school in Wellington, New Zealand and university in Vancouver. After spending seven years overseas, he returned to Japan and worked in Tokyo for two years. However, in order to look for nature and life in countryside, he moved back to his hometown and started working in local tourism. To initiate tourism in Yakumo town where tourism took almost none in place at all, he created several activities of experiencing the primary industries which are the core industry in this town. In addition to offering nature activities, he offers through activities which tourists can experience real agriculture, dairy farming, and fishery. Besides his role of managing local tourism, he is a guide who can bring you around Yakumo town and the surrounding areas to connect customers and local people.

Information and Requirements

Dietary Restrictions

We believe that eating like the locals is the best way of experiencing Hokkaido's unique culture. However, we understand that it's not possible for everyone to do this and we're more than happy to cater for food allergies, dietary restrictions, and special requirements. If you have any diet restrictions or preferences, please tell us in the Registration Form at the time of booking, and we will do our best to accommodate your dietary needs.

In some rural areas particularly, we may ask you for some flexibility. For example, if you require halal food, we may be able to substitute for a vegetarian option instead. Please also be aware that for those who are allergic to MSG we may struggle to arrange a good alternative at every meal in Japan. Some of our overseas guests in the past found it difficult to find ready-made foods completely free of MSG, especially when buying from convenience stores. Most Japanese supermarkets sell simple foods like plain bread, boiled eggs, vegetables and fruits, so you should always be able to find something suitable. The most important thing about dietary requirements is to let us know in advance so we can prepare and organize the foods you need.

Emergency Response Plan

Your safety is our top priority, closely followed by fun and comfort! All our tour guides have years of guiding experience in the outdoors under their belt. We require all our guides to be certified as Advanced First-Aid Responders or Wilderness First-Aiders. At all times, our guides will carry a first-aid kit, as well as have an extra kit in our vehicle. Depending on the terrain and the potential risks it poses on each trip, our guides will also have the necessary safety and climbing equipment. In case of heavy rain, strong winds or other unsafe weather conditions for hiking or canoeing, there may be times when we have to change our tour plan. In such cases, we will try to substitute the original activity with other alternatives such as sightseeing, visiting museums or hot springs. We take charge of turning a bad day around into a fun day!

Weather Conditions

Hokkaido's pleasant summer attracts many visitors from the other regions of Japan escaping from the unbearable summer heat and humidity. June is a transition month from spring to summer, and October is a middle of autumn.

During June to October the highest temperature is approximately 23°C / 73°F in August, and the lowest one is approximately 6°C / 42°F in October. The highest rainfall is 114mm(4.5inches) in August. The weather in Japan in September and October can bring typhoons. Although they are not as frequent as on Mainland Honshu, occasionally Hokkaido is hit by a cyclone (a weakened typhoon as it has travelled over Honshu to Hokkaido). Be prepared for variable weather; warm, cold, and wet, to ensure your comfort and safety while on traveling.

What is a ryokan?

On our tours, we use ryokan as much as possible to support the local tourism economy. A ryokan (旅館) is a traditional Japanese inn, and it is the epitome of Japanese hospitality and cuisine. They are often located in natural surroundings and feature Japanese style rooms with tatami mats with rice paper partitions and futon (sleeping mattresses). Each ryokan prides itself on its cuisine and features seasonal local ingredients. Many ryokan also have on-site natural hot springs for their guests to enjoy during their stay. Here are some good-to-know facts about ryokan to avoid unwelcome surprises.

- You are sleeping on the floor. A traditional Japanese room does not have western beds, instead futon bedding is provided. Often ryokan staff enter your room and prepare your futon while you are out for dinner.
- Ryokan provide "yukata", which is a traditional night robe that looks like a kimono. You can wear it to the hot spring spa and also to dinner, basically anywhere within the ryokan facility. Because in the evening we mostly dine in house, you don't have to bring a lot of evening clothes as long as you think you will be comfortable hanging around in your yukata. Our guides will explain how to wear yukata properly if you are unsure.

What is an onsen?

Some hotels have onsen spa, that are, natural hot springs. As a volcanically active landscape, Japan has well over 25,000 natural hot springs scattered throughout the country. Since ancient times, the people of Japan have loved onsen and will travel far and wide to visit famous onsen establishments. Please keep in mind that there are certain protocols that go with bathing in an onsen, however they're super simple!

- You bathe in your birthday suit, that's right, no clothes or swimwear is allowed in the bath. Don't worry, no one is looking!
- Take a shower before you enter the water. It's important for the onsen waters to stay clean so make sure to rinse all soap off and long hair should be tied up. You can take a small towel in if you're feeling shy, but the towel cannot touch the waters.
- Be respectful of others. Do not run, talk too loudly, drink alcohol, or splash around while in the onsen. Don't forget to take in a hand towel, so that you can lightly dry yourself before returning to the changing room. We're quite fussy about keeping the floors of the changing room dry. Last but not least, relax and enjoy yourself!
